At OFC, the moments bring a warm welcome, and a flow of laughter, conversation, music, some friendly teasing, and more laughter. These are the comforting creaks of settling in among friends. There's a simplicity to the Club happenings that brings a sense of purpose and satisfaction.

In these newsletters, we hope to offer a glimpse of the fellowship, joy, challenges, and triumphs we share at Old Friends Club.

Small groups, blossoming friendships, big impact

Earlier in the year, one of our Program Coordinators had returned from holiday and noticed a transformation within her group. Specifically, she noticed the friendship between two ladies was really blooming.

What caregivers should know about getting the most out of Old Friends Club Adult Day Program

In a previous blog post, we talked about "What members can expect on a typical day at old friends club?". While these 5 common caregiver questions below are answered individual in our FAQ pages under Program Logistics, this month's post will expand a little more on each:

1. Can I stay and volunteer?
2. Do they need to bring a lunch?

3. Can they go for less hours than the 5?
4. Do they have to go all 3 days?
5. Will you provide transportation?
