At OFC, the moments bring a warm welcome, and a flow of laughter, conversation, music, some friendly teasing, and more laughter. These are the comforting creaks of settling in among friends. There's a simplicity to the Club happenings that brings a sense of purpose and satisfaction.

In these newsletters, we hope to offer a glimpse of the fellowship, joy, challenges, and triumphs we share at Old Friends Club.

Volunteering: I wanted to practice my banjo and the experience ended up feeding my soul

Since June 2018 I've had a blast with members at all four Old Friends Club locations hosting what I call, "Rousing Bluegrass Sing-along". I wish I had started volunteering at OFC sooner. The experience changed my life. I highly recommend giving volunteering at Old Friends Club a try!

Members make us who we are, so who attends Old Friends Club?

Our members span a variety of backgrounds and each has a unique story. We are so fortunate to have such a diverse group of people attending our Adult Day Programs which contributes to the personality of a given club location. So who are the people that make up Old Friends Club members?
